And here's a possible draft letter:

Dear Sir,

I am a supporter of Fairtrade products and would like to know why Marks and Spencer do not currently carry any products with the Fairtrade mark?

I am aware that there are other large retail stores, like Sainsbury's, Morrisons and the Co-op, who also specialise in 100% own brand products, who do sell coffee, tea, bananas etc with the Fairtrade logo.

Please could you let me know why the company has not adopted the Fairtrade mark and pass on my concerns to the marketing division, since I would very much like to buy Fairtrade products from your stores.

Yours faithfully,
